

Heart of the City Award

Mission

The purpose of the Be Kind initiative committee is to promote, through actions and awareness, the benefits associated with incorporating acts of kindness into the mindset and way of life for the citizens, customers and employees of the City of Henderson.

Heart of the City Award Criteria

The Heart of the City Award is designed to recognize individuals who have performed exceptional acts of kindness that have enriched the lives of our community. The award is presented annually to a citizen or city employee who has demonstrated distinctive service or acts of kindness to another individual, which may be described as one or more of the following:

- Improvement of academic performance
- Enrichment opportunities, character building and/or mentoring
- Recognition of others
- Possessing exceptional qualities that set this person apart
- An action or behavior that raised the morale of others
- Sincere cooperation, positive attitude and exceptional willingness to assist others

Eligibility

City of Henderson residents and employees who have gone above and beyond in promoting and living the kindness message (such as, but not limited to, coaches, teachers, students, and community leaders) are eligible for nomination.

2017 Nominations

Nominations are accepted through October 1, 2017.

Award Presentation

The award is presented during the city's annual Color Me Kind 5k, to be held in November at Cornerstone Park. The recipient will be notified in advance, but is not required to attend the event to receive award.

Heart of the City Award

The deadline for nominations is October 1, 2017.
