

Community Pride Award Nomination

The City of Henderson Commemorative Beautification Commission presents the Community Pride Award to recognize individuals and businesses who have improved the appearance of their neighborhoods or added to the beauty or cleanliness of Henderson. The recipient receives an award sign, which is posted for several months in their yard or business exterior, to recognize their outstanding efforts. Previous winners include homeowners who have cleaned up a neglected yard or common area, or have converted turf to xeriscape, thereby improving the appearance of their home or community area.
